	Aff.Mail	Petitioner states the mother is currently arrested for possession of meth. She was renting a room from a couple who were babysitting the minor, but they were also supporting and/or encouraging the mother's drug use. They babysit for her while she goes on binges for days. Petitioner would like to pick up her granddaughter from this couple that refuses to give her to Petitioner. They have left dogs loose in their front lawn to keep Petitioner from coming near the home. Petitioner does not know when the mother will be released and fears for her granddaughter's safety. The couple also had control of the mother's food stamp card and was using or abusing the funds and supporting her criminal activity. Petitioner found out that they had been selling drugs. She is concerned that they will take the minor out of the county. The mother is referring to them as her "parents" and they are calling her by a different name.

	Aff.Mail		Petitioner states the minor was born addicted to drugs, testing positive for methamphetamine and marijuana. The mother's four older children are in the care of her mother, the maternal grandmother. The mother has an extensive CPS history and signed consent. Petitioner fears that she will change her mind and abscond with the baby. Temporary guardianship is needed because the minor needs immunizations and medical attention. He is considered "high risk / special needs" due to being born with drugs in his system. Petitioner has cared for him since birth, including through withdrawals from the drugs.
